

8 May 2010

Langenorla remembers...

The town of Langenorla (Saale-Orla-District) organizes an international remembrance day for the 65th Anniversary of the end of WW2 and celebrates the Europe Day

- 09:00 am Departure with military old-timers from Langenorla - Orlamünde - Eichenberg - Kahla (with stop at market square +/- 10:30 am) - Hummelshain - Oppurg - Pöbneck - Kleindembach
13:30 pm until 17:30 pm Visit to a historical military camp of the U.S. Army as in 1945 (Entry: 3 € per person) Possibility to drive along with an old-timer (5 € per person) Special exhibition regarding the last days of WW2 in Thuringia
16:00 pm Start of the European Run in Pöbneck (Chausseehaus) and in Freienorla (Gedenkstein) with arrival at the Sportplatz Kleindembach around 16:45 pm
17:45 pm Main ceremony at the old porcelain factory in Kleindembach
20:00 pm „Fest der Völkerverständigung“ at the Sportplatz Kleindembach with 650 balloons send out into the world by children and participants Musical support by : The Blechbläsersextett of the Heeresmusikkorps 2 of the German Army and the U.S. Army „USAREUR Band Brass Quintet“ "Back to the musical past of the 40's" Entry at the desk: 2 € per person The gastronomical support is assured. Free parking Children under the age of 14 have free entry

More information: www.gemeinde-langenorla.de

